The screenshot shows the GRAPHICNEWS website interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "Search for infographics" and the logo "GRAPHICNEWS" with the date "MAY 10, 2024". Navigation tabs for "NEWS", "SPORT", and "CONFLICT: Is" are visible. The main content area features several news cards and infographics:

- PARIS OLYMPICS: A banner image with the date "Jul 26, 2024" and "EURO 2024".
- Green electricity: An infographic titled "Green energy now supplies 30% of global electricity" showing a bar chart of global electricity generation by source: Wind (7.82%), Solar (3.53%), Biomass (2.30%), and Hydropower (16.35%).
- Israel's Netzah Yehuda escapes U.S. sanctions: A news card with a photo of a man and text: "Washington has concluded that Israel has adequately punished soldiers and officers in the IDF's Netzah Yehuda of human rights abuses." It also includes a small infographic about "Improved accuracy" of a missile.
- South Africa: A news card with a photo of a man and text: "May 29: South Africa set for pivotal general elections. The ruling African National Congress may lose its parliamentary majority for the first time since 1994." It includes a small infographic about "Green electricity".
- Nvidia value quadruples in a year: A line chart showing the market capitalization of major U.S. companies from 2020 to 2024. Nvidia's value is highlighted as reaching $1.97tn by Feb 26, 2024. A callout bubble states: "The value of U.S. chip maker Nvidia is hovering around $2 trillion, buoyed by an insatiable demand for processors needed to power the boom in artificial intelligence (AI). LARGEST AMERICAN COMPANIES (by market capitalisation, $ trillion): 3.5, 3.0, 2.5, 2.0, 1.5, 1.0, 0.5, 0. The chart shows Apple, Microsoft, Alphabet (Google), and Amazon as other major players.
- Alarming global rise in sea surface temperature: A line chart showing "AGE DAILY SEA SURFACE TEMPERATURE" from 2002 to 2024. It shows a steady upward trend, with a specific point marked for "May 4, 2024: 30.9°C".
- Israeli tanks encircle eastern Rafah: A map of the Gaza Strip and surrounding areas (Israel, Egypt, Deir al-Balah). It shows Israeli ground advances, humanitarian zones, and an evacuation zone in Rafah. Text on the map: "Israeli tanks have captured the main road dividing Rafah, encircling the entire eastern side of the city in the southern Gaza Strip." "Rafah: Sheltering 1.4 million out of Gaza's 2.3 million people." "Some 110,000 Palestinians have fled Rafah since Israel began advancing troops towards east of city and intensifying attacks on May 6." "Israeli forces encircle eastern Rafah." Tropical forest loss eased in 2023 but threats remain

April 4, 2024 - Destruction of the world's tropical forests continued at a rate of 10 football pitches a minute in 2023, despite dramatic falls in forest loss in the Brazilian and Colombian Amazon.

The loss of primary forests – those untouched by people and sometimes known as old-growth forests – in the tropics declined 9% last year compared to 2022.

But Global Forest Watch researchers said the destruction remains stubbornly high. The world last year lost about 37,000 square km of tropical primary forest, an area nearly as big as Switzerland, Reuters said.
